MHET Honors Manufactured Housing Leaders, continued...

Long time industry supporter James B. Bostick was honored with the 2009 Above and Beyond Award. Jim is the owner of J.B. Bostick Company, Inc., which has an excellent reputation in the mobile home park industry for the work they do paving park streets throughout the state. Jim told the story of how he got started working for mobile home park owners on his first job in Villa Capri mobile home park in Stanton and had the opportunity to meet Wally Carr, Norm Busch and Norm McAdoo. That was 35 years ago and the beginning of a long and successful relationship with the mobile home park industry. J.B. Bostick Company, Inc., has three locations and over 100 people working for the company.

The 2009 Hall of Fame Inductees are partners Arno F. Chauvel and Jerry D. Jacobson. While each of these individuals have accomplished and interesting backgrounds, their experience in the mobile home park industry began in the mid 1980's when they met at Marcus and Millichap, a real estate investment firm. In 1990 Arno and Jerry formed Summit Communities, Inc. specializing in the ownership and management of mobilehome communities. Summit now owns and manages several parks in California and several other states. Both Arno and Jerry serve on the MHET Board of Directors and are avid supporters of property rights. Over the past 19 years they have been involved in numerous rent control battles throughout the state and both served on the steering committees for Propositions 199 and 98.

The evening was enjoyed by all and turned out to be a successful event for the MHET Resident Assistance Program. The Awards Dinners are held every other year in odd-numbered years.

Communication is Everything! Announcing New Publication

Included in this issue of the MHET VIEW is the first issue of a new publication, The Manufactured Housing Update. The two-page newsletter is designed to provide a forum for sharing information of interest with people who live and work in mobile home park communities in the Southern California region and anyone who is interested in learning more about mobile home park living. It is designed to be clipped from this newsletter and copied for redistribution. Mobile home community owners and others are encouraged to make copies for distribution to park residents or others who are interested in mobile home park living. For more information on this publication and to receive future copies, please contact MHET Executive Director Vickie Talley at 949- 380-3303 or vickie@mhet.com.

MISSION STATEMENT

MHET is dedicated to promoting the manufactured housing and mobile home business industry, educating its members, manufactured and mobile home owners, community leaders, and the public about manufactured housing community and mobile home park issues. MHET acts as a resource to provide vision and protect property rights, and leads in the resolution of public policy issues affecting the manufactured housing industry and mobile home parks.
